ISAS- K Webinar series -2020

ISAS is a multidisciplinary professional body of analytical scientists, technologists, academicians, researchers etc., established in 1983, with an objective of disseminating high quality knowledge towards the growth of analytical sciences in the country. As the prevailing pandemic prevent the usual modes of seminars and workshops, ISAS decided to organise a series of webinars in phases, the Phase 1 of which just concluded, in which eminent scientists, technologists and academicians delivered high quality lectures on various topics.

Dr. K.L Sebastian, Professor and Dean (Research), IIT, Palakkad, who is an eminent expert in the subject, will inaugurate this Webinar Series Phase 2 and deliver the first part of his two-part lecture on Quantum Mechanics, one on 10th and the second part on 11th October 2020 at 7pm. ISAS Kerala Chapter invites Scientists, Technologists, Teachers, Students and also those who intend to strengthen their knowledge-base and build an excellent career in teaching, research and various professions.
