Webinar Series

Indian Society of Analytical Scientists (ISAS) is a multidisciplinary professional body of analytical scientists, technologists, academicians and researchers, established in 1983, with the objective of disseminating high quality knowledge towards the growth of analytical sciences in the country. Even during this turbulent period caused by Covid- 19 pandemic, ISAS could organise a series of webinars in which eminent scientists and professors delivered talks on various scientific and technological topics.

We are very happy to inform you that the Kerala Chapter of ISAS is organising a webinar in association with ISAS - HQ, Mumbai on 9th November 2020 at 7 PM to honour Prof. Subi Jacob George, Shanti Swarup Bhatnagar awardee 2020. Prof. Subi will deliver a talk entitled 'Towards Life-Like Dynamic Materials'. Your participation in the webinar is solicited.
